TARA DESIGNER HOMES

A large, multi-story stone building with a prominent balcony and a large pile of rocks in the foreground. The building has a gabled roof, a central arched window, and several smaller arched windows. The balcony is made of stone with a decorative railing. The foreground is dominated by a large pile of rough, grey stones.
